. This is an application by the legal heirs of the sole deceased respondent who seeks to be substituted in place of the sole respondent as respondents. The sole respondent died on 21.12.2004 which goes to show that the appeal was preferred by the State against a dead person. It will be appropriate that the appellant takes steps in the matter to bring on record LRs of the deceased respondent.

2. Civil application stands disposed of accordingly. No order as to costs.
